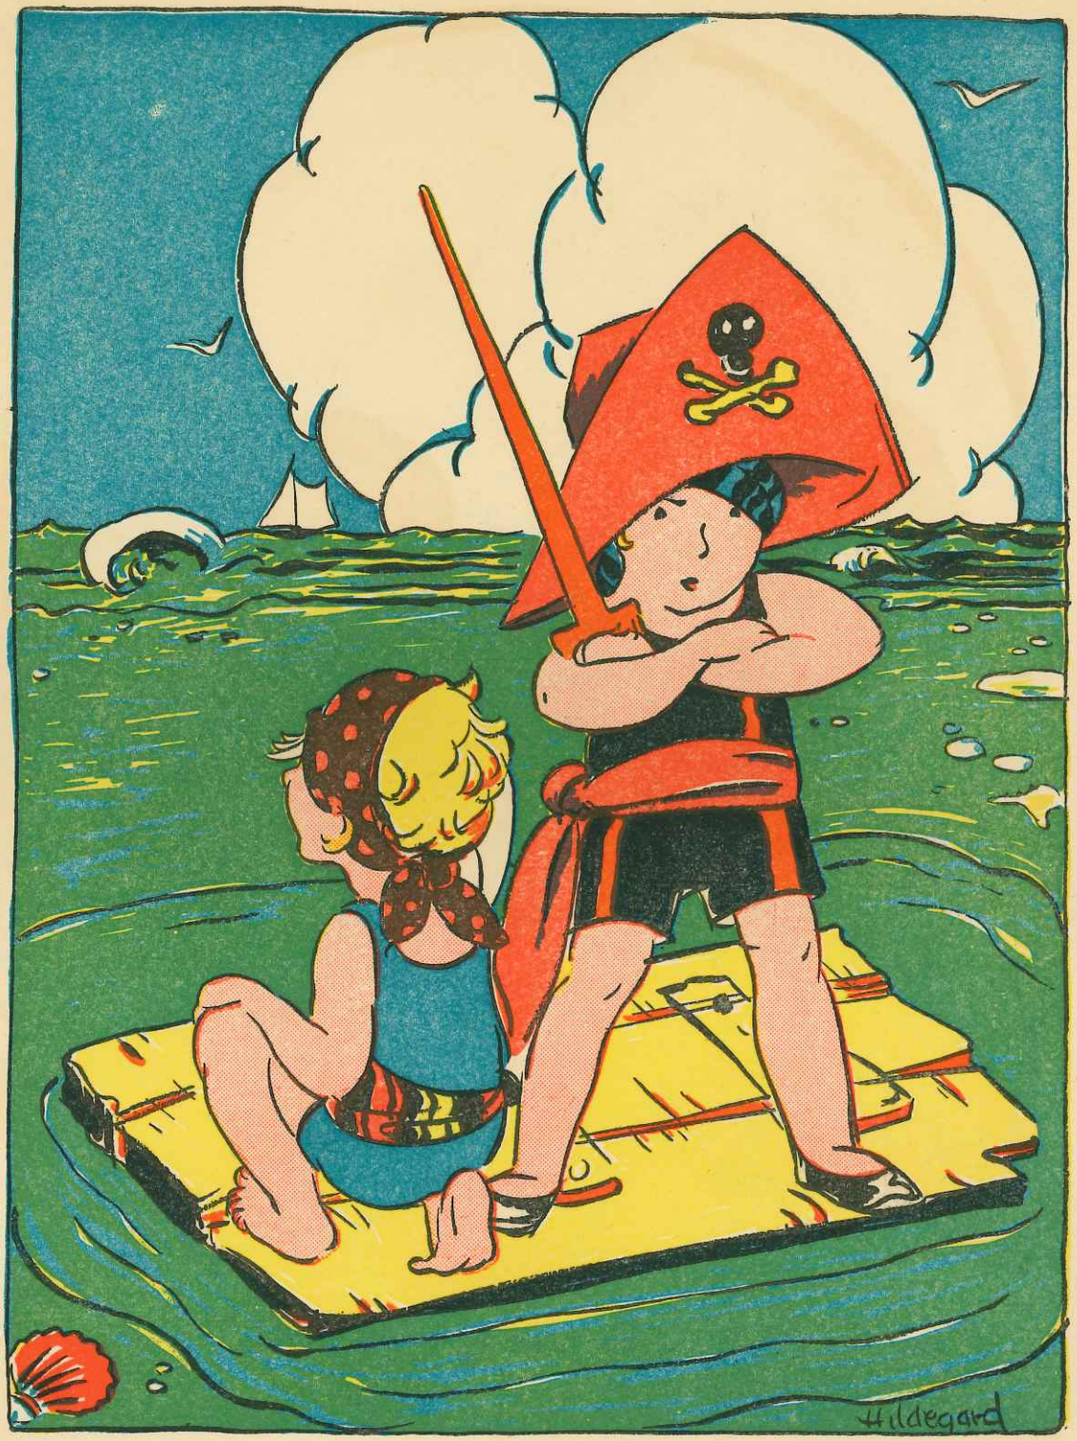
"Jacky, Jacky," said Jane with a bound,
"Be more careful or we will fall to the ground."

"Blind Man's Bluff, you can't catch me,"
Laughed all the Kiddies, full of glee.

"Whenever we feel like playing ball,
One must hold Skippy, or he'll spoil it all."

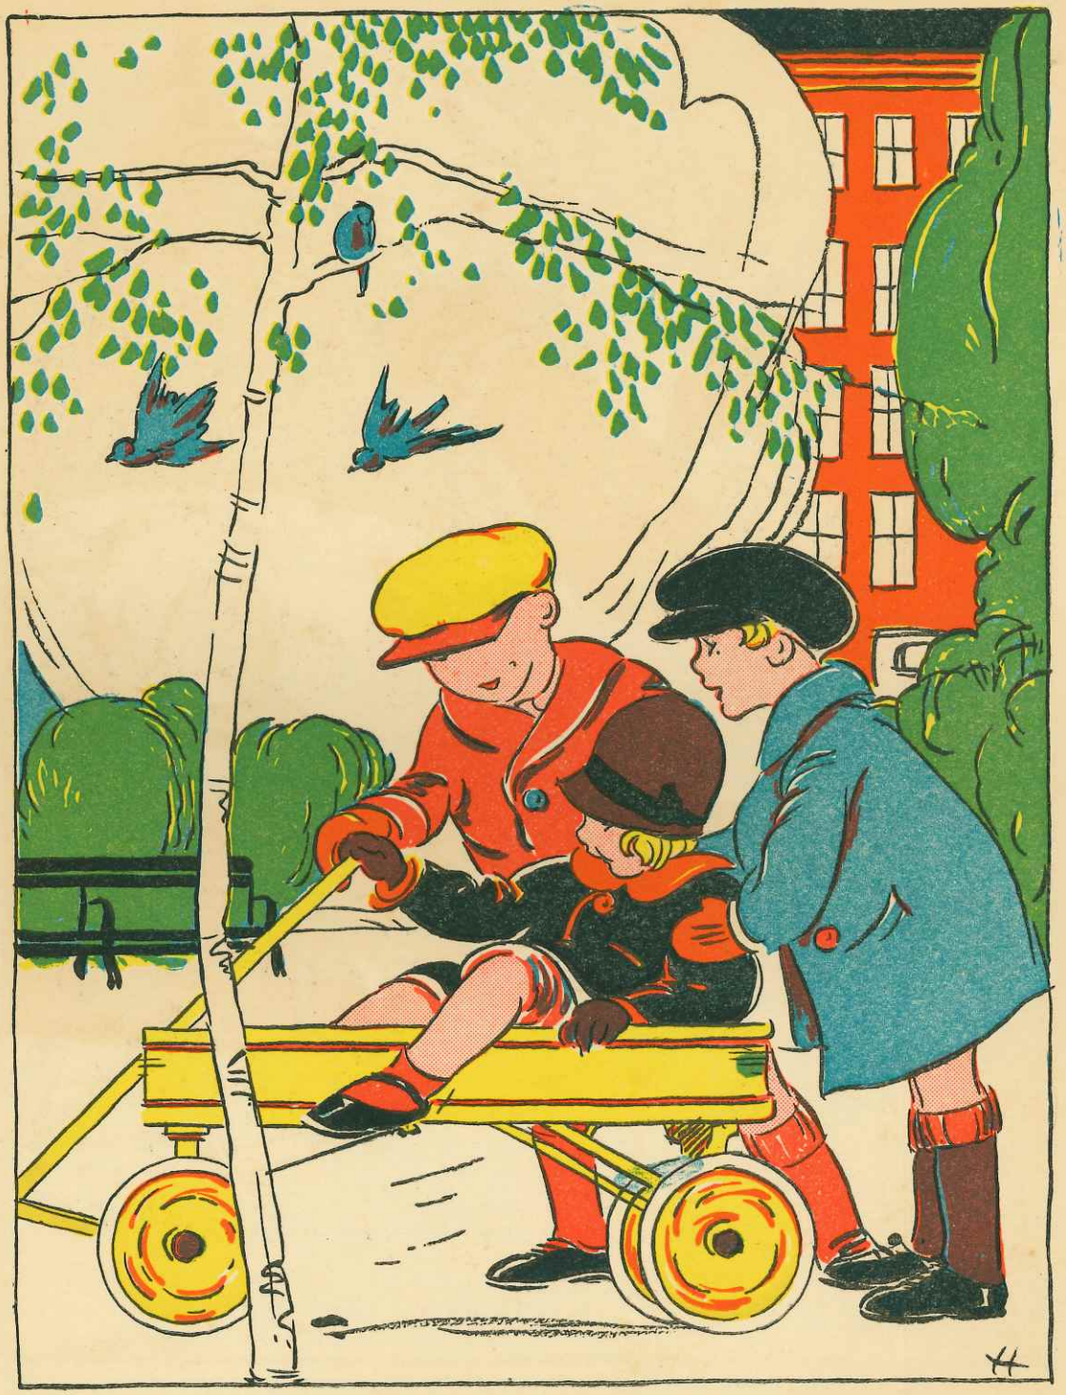


"I am a bold PIRATE, so I'll be very frank,
If you don't do as I say, you'll have to walk the PLANK.

"Bobby does this and Baby does that,
But Jacky is clever. so he spells CAT."

"Nancy," said Dick, "It's not slippery at all,"
And as he said that he had a great fall.

"Let us dance and shout,—Whoppee, Whoppee, Whow,
Buster do as we do, for we are Indians now."



"Now hold tight while I give you a push,
If you don't steer right you'll go into a bush."

Take Brother out sledding and go very slow,
And make no sharp corners lest he fall in the snow.
